

BOMBAY TEACHER'S TRAINING COLLEGE

ORGANISES A WEBINAR ON

Let's Talk Etiquette

Resource Person: Yogeeta Borkar

Date: 17/08/2020

Time: 10.30 AM to 12.30 PM

Etiquette is a code of behaviour that delineates expectations for social behaviour according to contemporary or current conventional norms within a society, social class or professional group setting.

On Monday, 17th August 2020, Bombay Teachers Training College organised a webinar on the topic "Let's Talk Etiquette" with the Resource person, Ms. Yogeeta Borkar. The session commenced with an address by Dr. Rajeev Jha as he welcomed Principal and Faculty Members of Bombay teachers training college, the Resource person and participants for this Webinar. The Webinar began by invoking the blessings of the Almighty through the Prayer Song of our College "Om Sarve bhavantu sukhinaha..."

Dr. Rajeev Jha, then gracefully commenced today's session on "Let's Talk Etiquette" by highlighting the theme of the session through her thought provoking words by saying, "You never get a second chance to create your first impression".

Our student of B.Ed., Arbaaz Shaikh, then formally introduced the vibrant speaker and resource person of the day- Ms. Yogeeta Borkar - Proprietor - Micro Insight Consultancy/Auditing/Training, who would embark us through this virtual journey and enlighten us with her vast sea of knowledge.

Ms Yogeeta Borkar set the induction by an activity and conducting a poll session for the same. She then enlightened us on the art of creating the right 'first impression' and gave introduction to the concept and elements of social Etiquette. She also familiarized us to the key Etiquette tips to carry
